

Sovereignty Speaks®

IRB Roundtable

Sohail Khan, MBBS, MPH, CIP

Cherokee Nation Health, Director of Health Research Cherokee Nation Institutional Review Board, Co-Chair

Dr. Khan earned his MPH in 1992 in Epidemiology and Biostatistics from the University of Oklahoma Health Sciences Center College of Public Health. His recent research publications focus on rheumatic disease, metabolic syndromes, Type 2 Diabetes among Oklahoma tribal populations, and effective collaboration between tribal nations and Indian Health Service.

Michael Percy, MPH, MT(ASCP)H

Chickasaw Nation Department of Health Epidemiologist Chickasaw Nation Institutional Review Board, Administrator

Mr. Percy earned his MPH in 2009 from the University of Oklahoma. He is an epidemiologist with the Chickasaw Nation's Division of Research and Public Health, and he's a certified Medical Technologist with a specialty in hematology. Mr. Percy also serves as technical advisor representing Oklahoma on the National Institutes of Health's Tribal Advisory Committee.

Ryan Schupbach, Pharm.D., BCPS, CACP

Captain, U.S. Public Health Service Vice Chair, IHS National Pharmacy & Therapeutics Committee, FDA Drug Safety Oversight Board IHS member, FDA Drug Safety Oversight Board

Captain Ryan Schupbach is Vice Chair for the IHS committee charged with global responsibilities including formulary management oversight and clinical education/guidance. Capt. Schupbach has worked for the IHS as a pharmacist in numerous clinical capacities since his pharmacy career began in 2001.